Henry Weihrauch

Funeral services for Henry G. Weihrauch, 76, were held Thursday, Jan. 11, at 2 p.m. at St. John's Lutheran Church in Groton with the Rev. Russell Peterson officiating. Interment was in the Groton Union Cemetery with the Paetznick - Garness Chapel in charge of arrangements.

Organist was Mrs. Alfred Suelz. The congregation sang two hymns, "I Am Content" and "My Hope Is Built On Nothing Less."

Ushers were LeRoy Weisenberger and Lyle Thurston.

Casketbearers were nephews, Henry Lehman, Reuben Lehman, Robert Voigt, Albert Weihrauch, all of Groton; LeRoy Locken, Bath; and Arthur Ringgenberg, Columbia.

Mr. Weihrauch passed away Tuesday, Jan. 9, 1973, at St. Luke's Hospital after a lingering illness.

Henry G. Weihrauch was born October 21, 1896, on a farm northwest of Groton. He was baptized December 23, 1896, at Trinity Lutheran Church, James. He was confirmed October 9, 1911, at St. John's Lutheran Church, Groton. On June 4, 1919, he married Agnes Jost at Hoven. They farmed near James until 1942 when they moved to Groton and he worked as a carpenter until his retirement. He was employed by Groton City for several years. He was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church, Groton.

Survivors include his widow; two daughters, Mrs. Eugene (Alvera) Neuman and Miss Betty Weihrauch, all of Groton; one grandson, Clyde Neuman and one great-grandson Brian Neuman, both of Seekonk, Mass.; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two sisters and four brothers.
